

The Cambridge (Md.) House of representatives are looking over the Eastern shore daily, but the bad and worse are injuring the corn very much and it is evident when they get into a

The Association of Progress towards a new Trust for the Times, Boston, Burlington, Chancery Good-the crack-jaw name which leads this fair set of 200 pages, means, as not accustomed to the use of a dictionary may like to know—the establishment, or a return to the same thing of what existed at a former time.

A drift of the book is to show that the origin of phenomena and doctrine in our day are attracting the attention of many, under the designation of spiritual-spiritual rappings—concerning the dead—extraordinary, &c.,—but presentation of what was done and is done in other pages—in fact a review of some of the grossest atheism ever presented.

An author brings forward from eminent men sample proof of his position. He says that modern operators hardly come in, in the way of performances, to the anomalous, though they are getting pretty well in setting forth their absurd, corrupting and dangerous doings.

He has evidently witnessed and a good deal of what the adepts set up, and what their followers put faith in; truly nothing worthy to regard, but to be shamed. Whatever spirits are concerned in the acts or the ravages, he finds abundant reason to consideritious and lying spirits, working evil and good among men; and that it is not all necessary to be able to explain to understanding of one, exactly how every phenomenon is produced, before decides that the doctrines of the spiriters are contemptible as they are vicious.—Free Press.

—Mr. E. W. Blodell, who, for the twenty years, has been connected with Vermont Press, on his retirement from editorial chair, has the following:

For twenty years past I have labored strenuously and patiently in the vocation of writing and publishing a weekly newspaper in Vergennes, and I feel most gratified for the very generous popularity of my paper.

Whether it will be possible to content myself in the retirement from labor which I now propose, and enjoyment of that quiet and luxurious life which my wealth may enable me to enjoy, remains yet to be seen. Should I find that comfort and happiness in a realm which I have so long found in the industrial pursuit of my profession, I again appear newly furnished and enabled to seek the vigorous exercise for a renewal of that path which for the last twenty years they have shownly followed upon me. It ever turn to the labor of my profession, it will be here in Vergennes. I shall not go to the West, nor to California, nor to Liberia.

I shall stay here—where I have so far so successfully labored for family, and fortune, and where I am by no means too strong to be severed even in persecution.

—LEOPHIC REPORT FOR THE HERALD. H. M. CHASE, Operator.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

Arrival of the Canada.

New York June 21, 2:30 P. M. The Steamer CANADA arrived at Halifax this morning, at 1 o'clock.

NEWS.

Markets unchanged.

Changes have been made in the English fleet. Lord John Russell was appointed President of the Council; the Duke of Wellington—Minister of War; Sir G. Grey—Secretary of State for the Colonies.

Ninety thousand Anglo-French troops marched on Silesia.

LATER REPORT.

CONTINENTAL NEWS BY THE CANADA.

June 21, 6:30 P. M. The troops sent to Silesia were expected to arrive there about the 14th inst.

It is believed that deep political movements are in progress, at Vienna, between supporters of Austria and the King of Prussia.

Constantinople letter says that the arrangement concerning Serbia has been definitely agreed upon between the Divan and the Austrian government. These arrangements guarantee that Serbian terms be respected so long as symptoms of the prompt intervention of Austria do not occur. The Serbian militia, to the number of about 90,000 men, will be under arms.

RESULTS.—The leading circulars are conflicting, some reporting prices a higher and others a trifle lower. The fact is, the market remains unchanged the last Steamer.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

MONTPELIER, June 21, 11 o'clock A. M. The Democratic Convention is now in session. It is ascertained that there is a positive majority present against the Negro bill, and the available candidates, including word that they will not stand fire, if resolutions supporting that measure are passed. The excitement is considerable among them, and Government leaders are doing their best to procure, at least, on the subject.

Second Dispatch.

July 21, 4 o'clock P. M. We learn that the Old Line Democrats are Convention, at Montpelier, nominating.

For Governor, MERRITT CLARK, of Poultney, For Lieutenant Governor, WILLIAM MATTOCKS of Poultney, For Treasurer, J. B. PARKER of Montpelier.

Union, widely declined being a candidate for re-election. Mr. Mattocks is a fine speaker.

P. Kilder also declined a nomination for the office of Lieutenant Gov.

Bond has fallen $2 per 100 lbs., last at New York. The fall in flour is $1.50. Barley articles are abundant, and fortifiers will have had to keep them up.—New England

Cambridge Cattle Market.
Reported by the Boston Daily Advertiser.
At market 300 cattle, all Boston, no steers.

PRICES.—Market Beef—Extra per cwt., $2.00 & 2.00. First quality, $1.50 and down, $2.00 third class, $2.50 ordinary, $2.00 & 2.00. Hides $6.00 & 6.50. Tallow, $2.00 & 2.50. Pork, $2.50 & 3.25. Calf Skins, 15c per lb. Venison, $3.00. Lamb, $3.00 & 3.50.

Stones—Working Ovens, $20. 100, 115, 130, 141, 154 & 162. Cows and Calves, $35, 41, 45, 51 & 52. Two years old, $40. 50, 55 & 60. Three years old, $41, 44, 48, 52, 55, 61 & 65. Sheep and Lambs, $26.41 at market.—Extra $2.50, $3.00 & 3.25. Calf Skins, 15c per lb. Venison, $3.00. Lamb, $3.00 & 3.50.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is small, but if more were at market they could not be sold at present quotations.—Western cattle must and will neutralize the high prices at which beef cattle are held in New England—both butchers and dairymen their whole influence in that direction.—Mr. Huntington, of Weston, Vt., had 2500 sheep which he sold at $7.25, 25 a head.

Remarks.—The supply of beef cattle is